Don't Take My Word For It. Listen To Our Clients!

"I return to the Millennium year after year because of the excellent service we get from every person in the sales department and the catering department. Tina & Steve are the greatest promotion you can have for your hotel. They are personable and attentive to a clients needs. We cannot ask for more."

Dick Fislar, Picture Perfect Travel, August 2011

"I definitely intend to not only come back for work purposes, but also to bring my family. The atmosphere is wonderful and the staff saw to my needs. Danielle is a tremendous asset to your organization. She checked in with me repeatedly and ensured that everything was not just to our satisfaction, but exceeded what we had expected."

Christie Mendenhall, Diversified Services Annual Meeting, July 2011

"Words do not express the desire of this staff to go above and beyond. They are wonderful. Rose is always attentive to the needs of our group and she does her homework. She is well-informed about each group we bring to the property."

Kimberly Ritter-Videmschek, Federation of Sisters of St. Joseph, July 2011

"When the workshop sponsors mentioned a lunch buffet was available in the mezzanine level for $10.95, I was skeptical. Buffets are hard to offer in a fresh and interesting manner. This experience, however, was a true exception. The food was excellent and tastefully presented and the service staff was outstanding and attentive."

David G. Braun, Investools Workshop, May 2011

"I would highly recommend The Millennium Hotel St. Louis to anyone planning an event. John Gavan, Gad Reiser, and Kelly Tuttle were extremely accommodating. They diligently took care of all the details and made sure that everything ran smoothly. Their professionalism, dedication, and attention to detail truly contributed to the success of our meetings. Again, thank you for a memorable experience. We look forward to working with your hotel again."

Ms. Skeeter J. Murray, Federal Bureau of Investigation CJIS Division, April 2011

"Your team was extremely diligent and ready to help us anyway we needed and assisting us with minor last minute changes. You have an exceptional team that is a joy to work with and makes our job so much easier. With as much traveling as we do and as many hotels we work with; it's so wonderful to get to a hotel with an intelligent and on the ball team such as the Millennium's."

Stephannie Danner, Yellow Ribbon, January 2011

"Words can not begin to describe how outstanding Gad Reiser is. He virtually made our meeting flawless. He was responsive prior to our conference and accommodating during our conference. I honestly don't know how we would have pulled off such an outstanding event without his assistance. His level of care and customer services is above and beyond expectations."

Danielle Bristow, National Orientation Directors' Association, November 2010

"I wanted to tell you of the comments and praise that my group had for the Millennium, St. Louis. While we were considering several properties in St. Louis for this training, the package that the Millennium presented was perfect for a government group. As you know, the rules, regulations and restrictions make doing a government event more challenging. The Millennium took many of those challenges away by recognizing our limitations and addressing them. The meeting went very well and the service incomparable."
